

Second Week Meyers Original June White Sale

All White Dress Goods and Silks Reduced
All Table Linens, Napkins and Fancy Pieces Reduced
All Sheets, Pillow Cases and Domestics Reduced
All Laces, Embroideries, Handkerchiefs Reduced

All Lace Curtains, Curtain Swisses, Floss Pillows, Reduced
All China Dishes, Brassware, Cut Glass, Reduced
Special Low Prices in Footwear Section, Men's Dept.
All Muslinwear and Corsets Reduced

OUR 694TH WEDNESDAY SURPRISE

WOMEN'S WHITE PETTICOATS, Extra Special, Only 89 Cents Each

A special offering of well-made Muslin Petticoats with dainty embroidered flounces and front designs. They are exceptionally neat, and the number of pretty designs offer a very wide selection. Warm summer weather is just at hand and you'll appreciate wearing such garments. They're dainty, and will give excellent service. The price is very surprising for such Petticoats as these are worth considerably more.

Next Wednesday.....89c each
Sale starts at 8:30. See window display.

Cherry Fair, June 25, 26 and 27

Everything White now at Reduced Prices

Bargains in Women's, Misses' and Children's Ready-to-Wear Garments

Women's Suits and Coats, $10.—A large assortment of the season's new stylish garments. You'll be surprised at such values as these; regular prices to $45; take your pick now at $10.00

Another large assortment Women's Suits and coats. See this rack—you'll find many decided bargains—prices to $27.50. Take your pick..... $5.00

Women's White Pique and Linen Skirts. If you need a Skirt, don't fail to inspect this large lot, priced to $7.75. Take your pick..... $3.98

Children's Wash Dress sale—3 to 14 years, at a reduction of one-third from regular prices.

ROOSEVELTS ARRIVE IN FRENCH CAPITAL

Paris, June 6.—Traveling from Cherbourg, where they landed in President Poincaré's private car, Colonel Roosevelt, his daughter, Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, and his nephew, Philip Roosevelt, arrived here today.

They were met at the station by Secretary Robert Bliss of the American embassy and motored to the Hotel de Clitton in Ambassador Herriek's automobile. Tomorrow they will leave for Madrid, where they are to attend the wedding of Colonel Roosevelt's son Kermit and Ambassador Willard's daughter Belle.

The journey will be made on the Sud Express, the International Sleeping Car company's crack train, and from there, on the frontier to the Spanish capital, details of civil guards will be stationed at short intervals along the right of way to guard against any possible attempt at violence by any of the political agitators with which the country swarms at present.

GUESS THIS IS SOME JOB FOR A PAINTER, EH?

Seattle, Wash., June 6.—It will require 35 painters, seven weeks to paint 53½ acres of surface on the interior of the new 42-story L. C. Smith building, now nearing completion here, according to Emil R. Zech, an official of the company which has taken the painting contract.

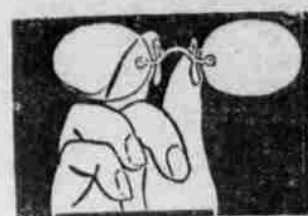

The paint brushes will daub 600 of office suites, and will brighten up the elevator shafts from top to bottom, a distance of 450 feet.

Approximately 35 tons of paint will be used. This will include 45 barrels of paint and 32,000 pounds of white lead.

SEATTLE MAYOR BREAKS ARM.

Seattle, Wash., June 6.—Mayor Herman C. Gill is laid up today with a broken arm, and will be unable to attend to his duties for several days.

While crossing a gravel bed in an inspection of the work on his new home,

To Correct Defective Vision

You need RELIABLE GLASSES accurately fitted.

Our work is our pride, and you are guaranteed good, conscientious work and accurate results.

Miss A. McCulloch
Optometrist

291 N. Comm'l St. Phone 525
Hours 9 to 5. Ground Floor adjoining his present residence, the mayor fell and broke his right arm above the elbow.

Mrs. Gill hastily summoned a physician and the bone was set.

An X-ray examination will be made today, as the mayor has been suffering from neuritis for several months, preventing him from shaking hands, and giving him much trouble in signing documents.

All Around Town

Try Scott's 15c meals.

Dr. Asseln, Zahnartz, Sleeves Bldg.

J. P. Rodgers was in Portland last night on business.

Go to Dr. Stone's for trusses.

Dr. F. L. Utter, dentist, Masonic building.

Lieutenant Hennessy, of the U. S. Army, who is instructor of cadets at O. A. C., was in the city today and in consultation with the governor.

Pay your Irrigation bills now, and get the 10 per cent discount.

Attorney William P. Lord, the well-known former Salem man, now having offices in Portland, was in the city today looking after business matters.

Don't forget the dates—June 10-11-12-13. W. O. W. carnival.

Superintendent Hale, of the Oregon Training School for Boys, was called to Portland yesterday, where his father was reported to be seriously ill. He is expected home tonight.

Dr. E. F. Reamer, eye, ear, nose and throat. Masonic Temple.

Attention, M. W. of A. Memorial services Sunday, June 7. Meet at hall, 9:45 a. m. Street car service.

Miss Helen Austin, an O. A. C. student, is visiting at the home of her schoolmate, Miss Harriet Rigdon, of this city. Miss Austin is on her way to her home in Aberdeen, Wash.

W. O. W. carnival, June 10-11-12-13. Four big days.

Merrill D. Richmond, who graduated last evening from the Salem High school, started this morning for Annapolis, Md., where he will take a four-years' course in the U. S. naval academy.

Midsummer sales are on—All millinery at reduced prices at Mrs. L. G. Curtis, 125 North High street, Masonic Temple.

A number of Salem hop men left today for Aurora, where they will hold a meeting similar to the one at Independence recently in the interests of the anti-prohibition campaign. Those making the trip were T. A. Livezey, Harry Talbert, H. V. Bolam, L. Donovan, Joseph Linn, Russell Caltrain.

NO REAR REFLECTIONS WITH TORICS

The curved Toric shape does away with the annoyance of rear reflections entirely. Your field of vision is widened and the close-fitting edges can not interfere when you look off at an angle. Come in and let me explain the difference between the genuine Toric lenses and the imitation.

Dr. M. P. Mendelsohn,
Doctor of Optics
210-211 United States Nat'l Bldg.

Frank Derbin, Heide Corryer, Louis Lauchman, Joseph Harris, George Lewis and O. G. McClelland.

Pay your Irrigation bills now, and get the 10 per cent discount.

Dr. Mendelsohn, specialist in fitting glasses correctly. U. S. Bank building.

Ten per cent discount allowed on irrigation bills the first 10 days of this month.

Today was shop day for the students of the Chemawa Indian Training School and Salem was made the center of attraction. Many dusky maidens and dusky young men from the school were in the city and all were apparently enjoying themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. August Shoote, of Portland, were in the city a few hours today visiting and attending to business matters. Mr. Shoote is engaged in the grocery business in the Rose city and states that while his business is not on the boom at present, business conditions are picking up encouragingly. The visitors returned to Portland on the afternoon limited Oregon Electric.

Ten per cent discount allowed on irrigation bills the first 10 days of this month.

The Browning Amusement company will furnish the attractions for the big W. O. W. carnival. Five big, free nets, June 10-11-12-13.

The pupils of Miss Laura Grant, assisted by Rieta Reed, soloist, will appear in a "Butterfly" recital at the Christian church, June 17th.

Series No. 9 of the Mutual Savings and Loan Association will be opened July 4th, 1914. Subscriptions for stock will be received from June 1st, 1914, at the office of the secretary, 275 State street. J. D. White, secretary.

Watt Shipp and father, Rube Sanders and John Jones returned last night from a two-days' fishing trip up the Luckiamute, but say that while the fishing is particularly good, the fish are not biting well on account of the cold weather. They say their catch was nothing to rave over, though they used all kinds of bait and all the science known to the party, which means that no other fishermen need to attempt to beat their record under similar conditions.

Notice! Irrigation bills are now due, 10 per cent discount allowed on said bills to and including June 10th.

Notice! Irrigation bills are now due, 10 per cent discount allowed on said bills to and including June 10th.

Salem is to have some eastern people for residents within a short time in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ranch and their three daughters and one son. They are coming from Blair, Nebraska, and will make their home on South Commercial street. C. D. Bauch, the well-known court reporter here, is another son, and he states that it is a "clinch" that his parents will like Salem, once they get familiar with it.

Woodmen of the World will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in the hall in the McCormick block. Neighbors are requested to meet at cemetery at 9:00 o'clock tomorrow morning. All bring flowers.

The Oregon State Penitentiary is getting to be a popular institution, apparently, prisoners being sent there three

MEN'S SUITS MUST GO!!

We are positively retiring from the Men's Clothing business. Every Suit and Overcoat must go as soon as possible. The garments are of the most dependable makes and offer a wide choice of fabrics. Regular and Norfolk models. This is how we are going to sell them, commencing Monday. We must sell one hundred Suits during the week, and these prices are going to do it.

Men's Regular $10, $15, $16.50 $8
Suits---Take your pick now at only $8
Men's Regular $18.50, $20, $22.50 $12
and $25 Suits---Take your pick at $12

Salem people have never been offered such suit bargains as these, and we could not possibly afford such tremendous price reductions if we did not desire a speedy riddance of our Men's Clothing Stock. Come early, as the most choice suits will go first

CHERRY FAIR JUNE 25, 26 AND 27

DEATH FOLLOWS WAKE OF THREE TORNADOES

Four Persons Known to be Killed, Two Others Are Reported Dead, and Scores Injured in Storm.

Sheldon, Iowa, June 6.—Four were known today to have been killed, two other deaths were reported and 25 injured had been accounted for, following three distinct tornadoes which swept northwestern Iowa between five and eight p. m. yesterday.

One of the storms struck the town of Sanborn, a second Hesperia and the third devastated the farming country further north.

Owing to the prostration of wire service, few details were obtainable.

WASHINGTON BANKERS ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR

Walla Walla, Wash., June 6.—At the final business session held here today, the State Bankers' association elected the following officers:

burg; H. J. Kerr, Okanogan; J. T. McVay, Seattle.

WILSON LOSES WORRIES ON GOLF LINKS

Washington, June 6.—President Wilson returned today from Annapolis, disposed of his most pressing correspondence and then spent several hours on the golf links. This afternoon he was scheduled to discuss the Mexican situation with Secretary of State Bryan.

WEST SALEM NEWS.

West Salem will vote on the question of a sewer Thursday, June 11.

Two blocks of Johnson avenue have been recently graded and gravelled.

Marion Putnam, road supervisor, is having the roads leading into West Salem graded and improved at an expense of several hundred dollars.

A force of men are at work remodeling the chair factory into an up-to-date drier for fruit and vegetables. It will be ready for business in about two weeks.

West Salem has two live grocery stores, one conducted by Mayor George Frazier, the other by Walter Girih, who is having a large two-story building put up, as his business has outgrown his present quarters.

The council has passed an ordinance limiting the speed of autos and motorcycles to 15 miles per hour within the city limits. The signs are up and joyriders would better heed the warning. There is trouble brewing for those who do not.

Councilman Ed Brock, who has been ill for several weeks is improving and hopes to soon be able to take up his regular work.

Miss Toka Cade left Tuesday for a

lengthy visit with relatives and friends in Nebraska, Illinois and other states. West Salem friends gave her a farewell reception.

NEW TODAY.

WANTED—At once, house man, Apply at Hotel Marion.

NOTICE—All coupons must be in by June 10. Studio De Luxe.

OLD PAPERS for carpets; 10 cents per hundred. Journal office.

FOR SALE—100 cords of big fir and ash wood. Phone Farmers F-13.

SAND, GRAVEL or loam delivered to any part of the city. Minto Bros.

PRIVATE INSTRUCTION in shorthand. Call 687 Marion to arrange hours.

IF YOU WANT a good hot meat sandwich fried in butter, get it from Fred Night Lunch.

GOOD SEWING MACHINES for sale, $3.00, $5.00, $8.00. Singer machine office, 640 State street.

WANTED—Old man needing a home and work; must be sober. Call at Fred's Night Lunch.

JANITOR WANTS WORK of any kind. C. care Journal, or F. P. C. box 41, Fairgrounds, Oregon.

TO SEE IT IS TO WANT IT—Fifty acres of land for sale. House, barn, chicken house, chickens, household furniture, etc. N. Rosenbaum, rt. 5.

MISS TOKA CADE LEFT TUESDAY FOR A

LOGANBERRY PICKERS WANTED. Two miles south of Salem. Address U. P. N. Journal office.

FOR SALE—Extra good cow; grade Jersey, 3 years old; would trade for hogs. Philip Rees, R. 1, box 106.

FOR RENT—The finest six-room flat in Salem. New, modern and very close in. Enquire Salem Auto garage, 246 State street. Phone 336.

NYE BEACH—Seven-room furnished house for rent for season. Two housekeeping suites; three bedrooms; choice location; adults preferred. Carrie C. McQuinn, Hippner, Oregon.

FOR SALE—Adding machine, stencil cutting machine, typewriter and adding machine combined. Koch butcher's scale, grain dealer's scale, four trucks and a lot of office equipment. H. S. Gile & Co.

HOUSEHOLD TUBE your own landlord! It's fine. Come on in. Now is the time to do it. Real estate is cheap; building material is lower than it will be again. The man who wins is the man who takes advantage of his opportunities. If you want to buy or build, we can help you. See us at once. Latler & Bollinger, 406 Hubbard building.

FOR EXCHANGE—54 acres of land with five-room house, small barn, family orchard; 45 acres in crop, balance in good wood timber; situated one-half mile from railroad town, and 7½ miles from Salem. Will exchange for stock ranch on coast. Must be a good one; well stocked and cheap. Address G. W. Smith, 484 Court street, Salem, Oregon.